

Collinson Massage School

The Collinson Massage School offers student massages for a donation of $35 for a one hour Swedish massage. Massages are done in our small classroom, by appointment only, and appointments are made directly through the students.

Below is the current list of students who are available for a student massage. Please be sure to make them aware that you received their information from the massage school website. Students are paid directly, therefore, cash or checks are accepted, no credit cards.

Please be sure to ask for specific directions, and consult the map below.
